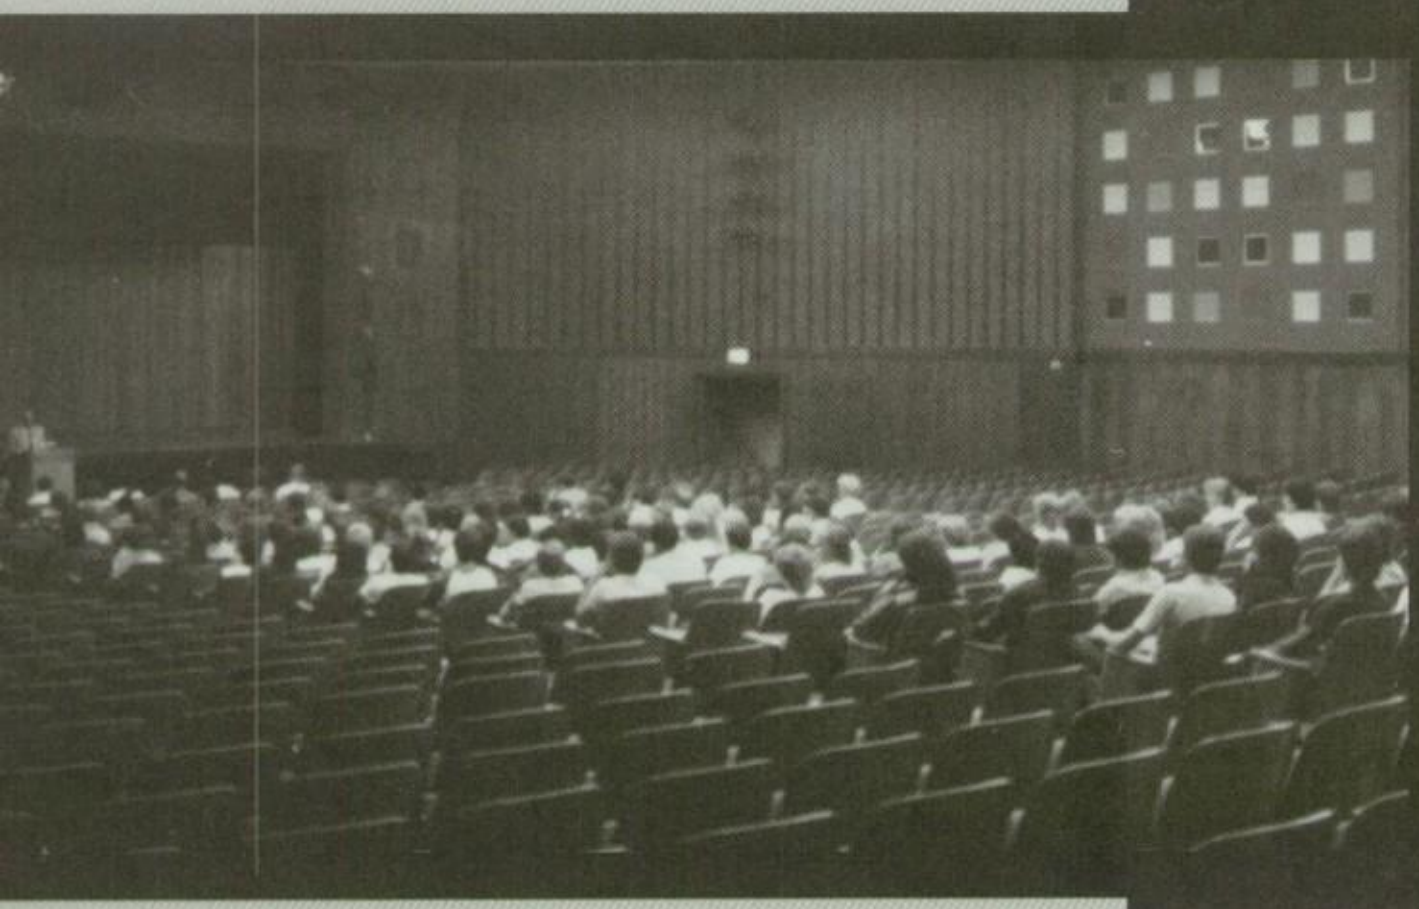
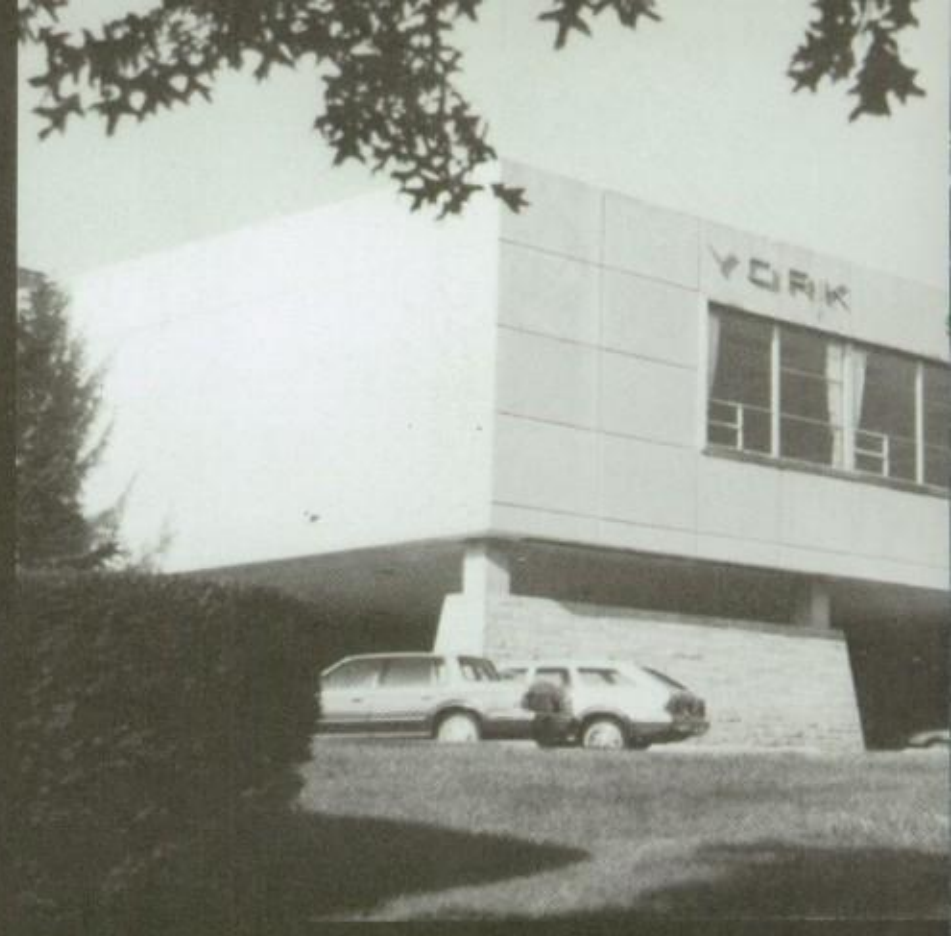
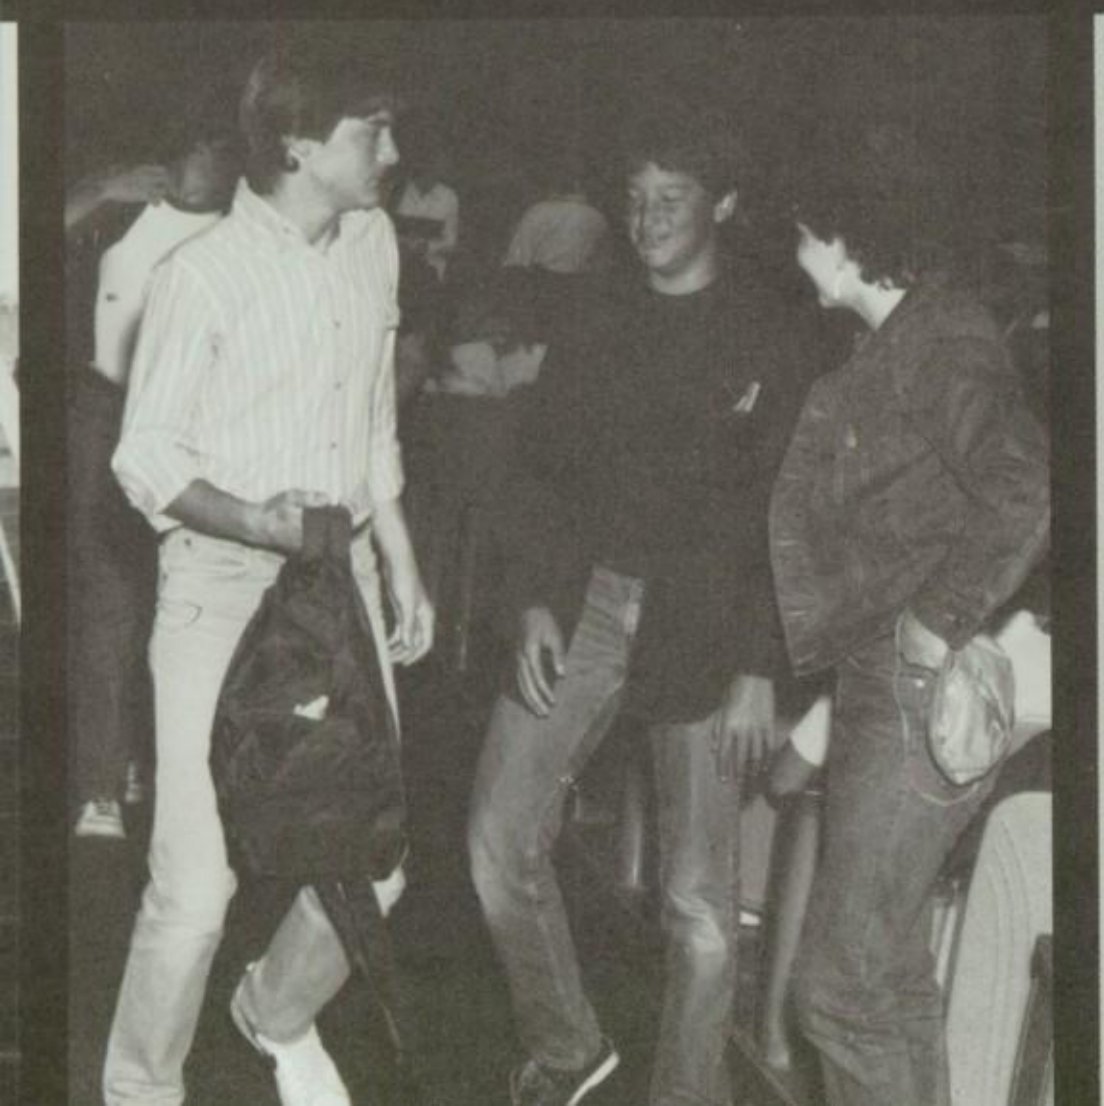
ZONING IN THE ZONE 132

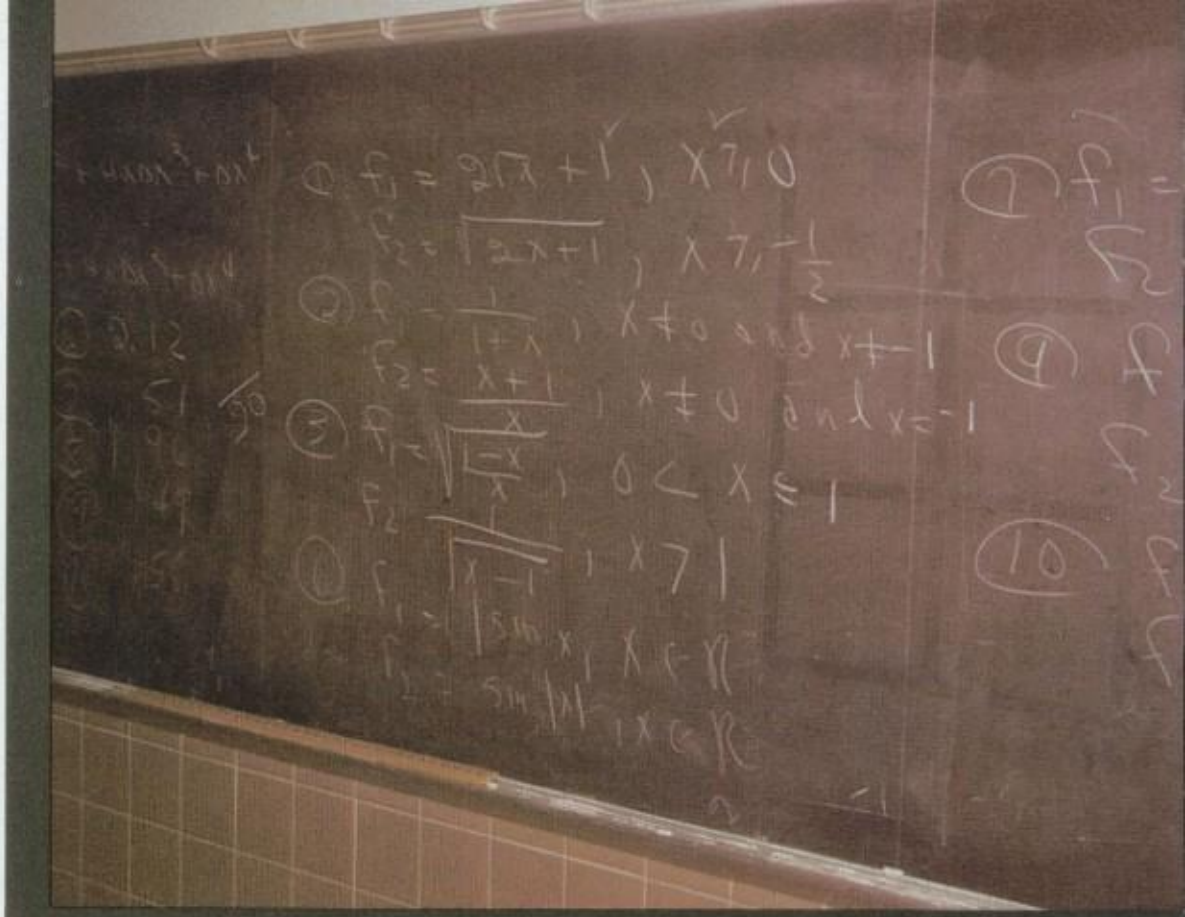
YOU'RE TRAVELING IN ANOTHER DIMENSION . . .



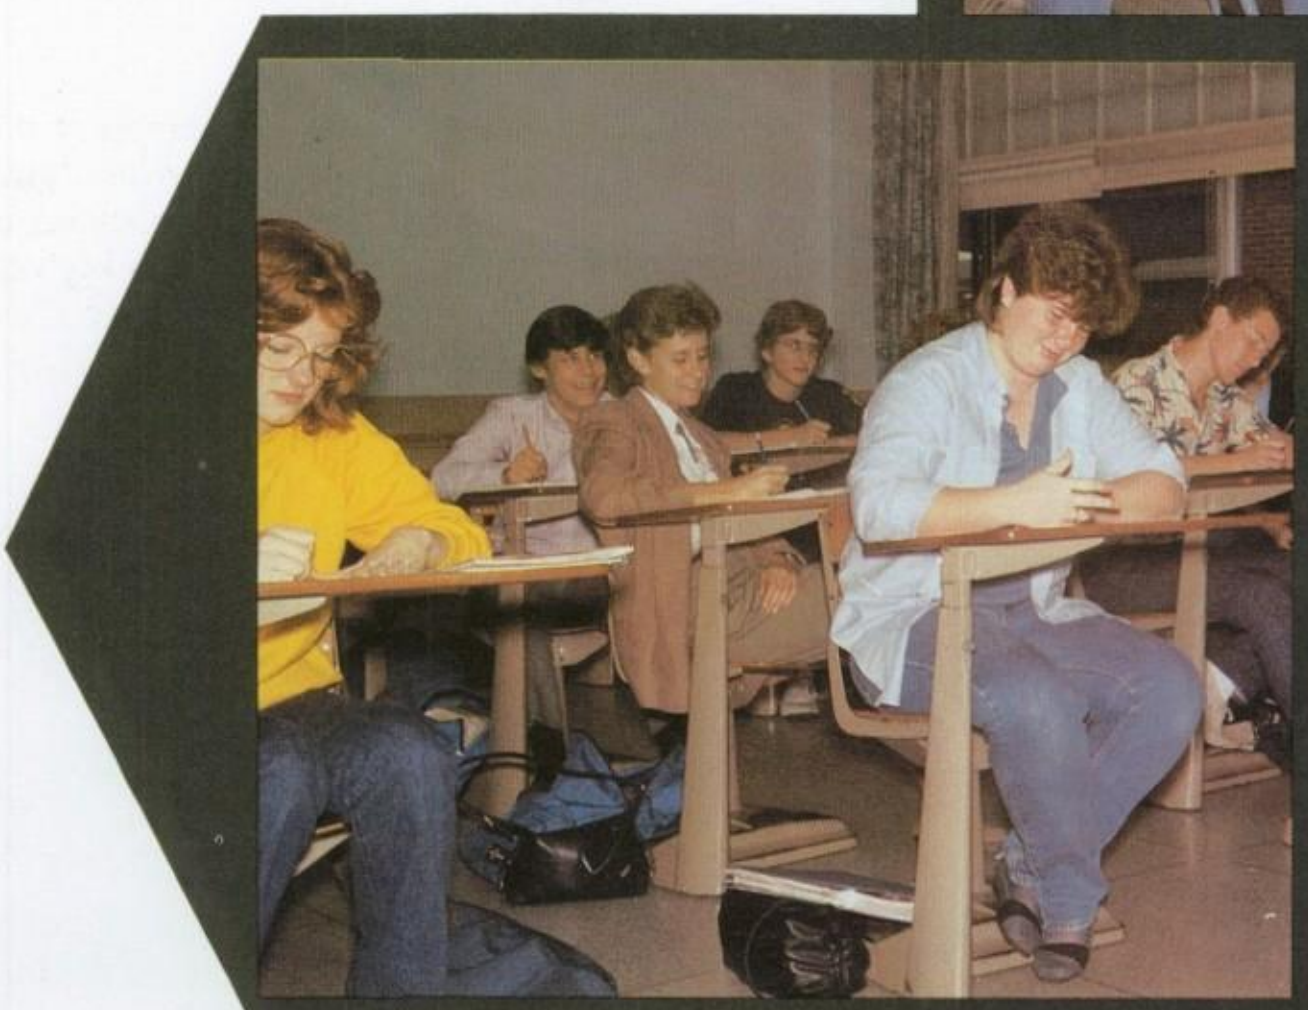


A dimension far different from anything you've experienced before. The building is bigger, the faculty is larger, and there are SO many people. Your travels began with the first day of your freshman year, and you've made it this far. Do you remember everything you learned? Some of what you learned? Anything at all? Or has this dimension been too much for you? For seniors, your trip is coming to an end. For underclassmen, your travels are just beginning.



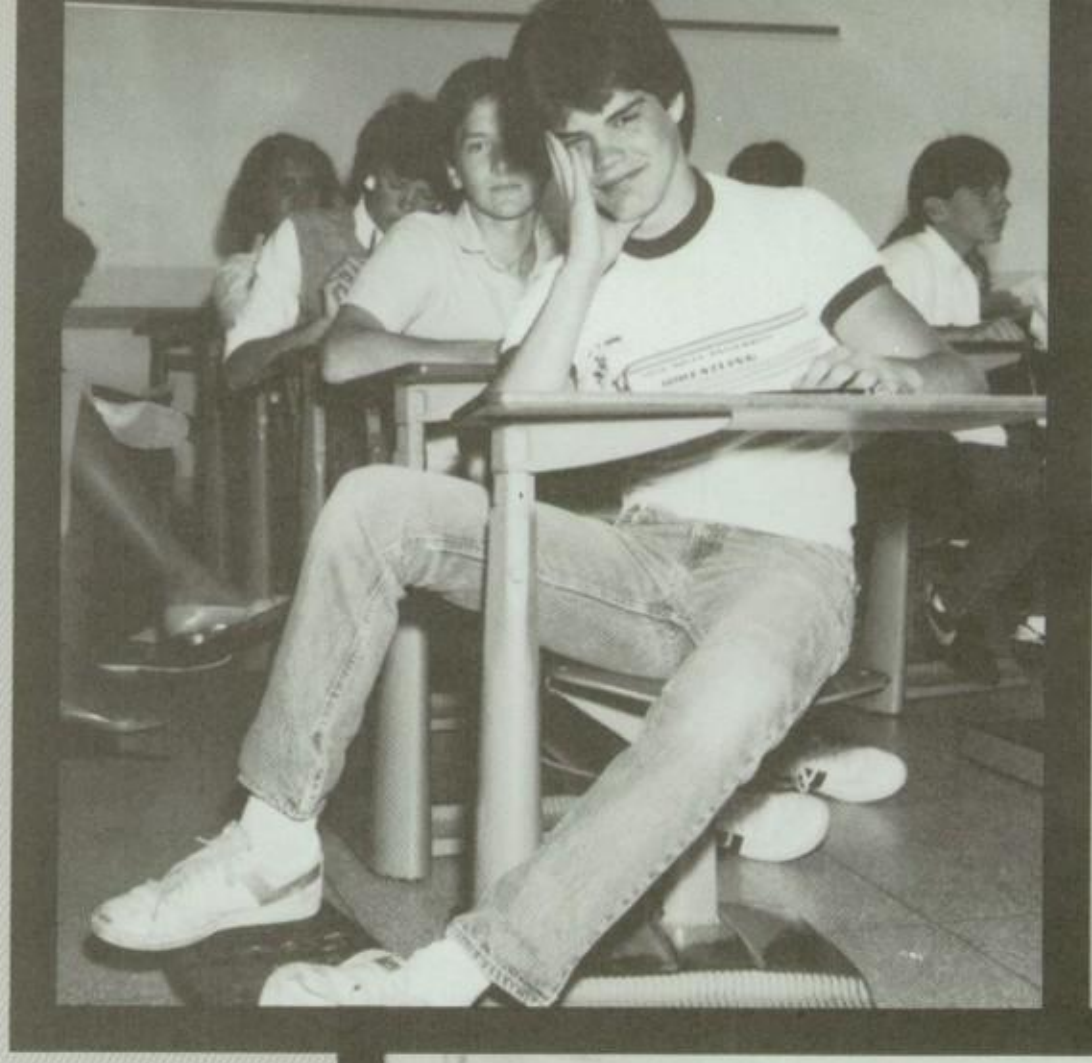


A DIMENSION NOT ONLY OF SIGHT AND SOUND, BUT OF MIND . . .



After all, schools are created to better the minds of their students. That's why you took all those wonderful classes: computer math, calculus, physics, psychology, world cultures, and of course, four fantastic years of English. But the senior high dimension does provide sights and sounds. Think of the fun you had at football games, swim meets, concerts, movies, and dances. Put them together and you have a once-in-a-lifetime experience.

A JOURNEY INTO A LAND WHOSE BOUNDARIES ARE THOSE OF THE IMAGINATION . . .



Imagination played an important part in your school career. You used it for creative writing assignments, term papers, science projects and practical jokes. And the imagination was a necessity for study hall daydreams. And what did you dream about? Guys (or girls), movies, sports, and your future.

SURVIVING THE ZONE

HOMECOMING

Suburban Transforms into "Almost Paradise"

The Homecoming festivities started early on October 20, with the pre-game show. The York Suburban band played as the floats rolled around the field. The theme of "Knock Over Dover" won the sophomores first prize.

As the band marched into a heart-shaped formation, under the direction of Richard Anderson, the members of the court, escorted by their fathers, were introduced. The court members and their escorts were Rebecca Abraham, escorted by John Rogus; Pam Horner, escorted by Kip Cosgrove; Tricia McCarthy, escorted by Jason Herrold; Lauren Mummert, escorted by Greg Doshna; Chihiro Muto, Rotary Exchange Student, escorted by Andy Full; Tiffani Sprenkle, escorted by George Phillipou, and Missy Stump, escorted by Bob Safran.

The 1983 Homecoming Queen, Kim Mader, crowned Tricia McCarthy the new Queen.

The Sky Brothers Band, many of the members being York Suburban alumni, entertained for the evening at the Homecoming dance. The theme of the evening was "Almost Paradise." Decorations were tropical in greens and yellows. Co-chairmen of the decorating committee, Diane Davis and Scott Wagner, deserve many congratulations, as well as student council advisors, Mr. Guyer and Mrs. Brader.

PROM

Court Enters "Heaven."

On April 28, 1984, students gathered at the Arts Hall of the York Fair Grounds for the Junior-Senior Prom. "York Suburban, Welcome to Heaven" was this year's theme. The Prom Court included Nancy Stambaugh and Steve Warner, Tracy Gable and Joe Danyo, Beth Anderson and Keith Martin, Hilary Smith and Andy Himes, and Sue Crowley and Dave Kranich. The Senior Class chose Beth Anderson and Keith Martin as Prom Queen and King. The night became a memorable event for each couple who attended.

Good friends bring great times to Prom.

GRADUATION

One Era Ends.

The class of 1984 held its commencement activities June 6, 1984, on the Dick May Field. The processional, led by school administrators, was followed by an invocation given by Sally Bahr. Mr. Kahley led the Knights for a final time in such songs as "Tomorrow", "Feelings", and "The Way We Were." Superintendent Dr. Dovey and School Board President Philip Avillo addressed the graduates. For the first time Suburban named a valedictorian, Andrew Heybey, and a salutatorian, Nancy Stambaugh. Each spoke briefly of memories of the past and hopes for the future. As Tim Paasch delivered the Benediction, each class member reflected for a few moments on his place in the memory of York Suburban.

CLASS PLAY

Squirrel Conquers Stage.

In February of 1984, the class of '85 presented the Junior Class Play, "The Worst High School Play in the World." This comedy, which takes place both in the past and present is set somewhere in between reality and fantasy. In this truly bizarre play, Jeff Mummert portrayed Ivanha, the hero. The audience watched as Ivanha matured from a young boy raised by squirrels into a powerful knight who eventually won the princess. Fortunately, the Junior Class Play did not live up to its title and brought laughter to all who attended.

Peggy Hickman makes her acting debut as the Yellow Knight.

Cast: Sitting: Jame McMaster, Holly Whittaker, Katherine Beaverson, Sue Himmer, Bob Greenawalt, Kathy Derrick, Scott Wagner, Julie Ulrich. Standing: Peggy Hickman, Dan Escaro, Becky Abraham, Matt Hershey, Ed Lincoln, Bob Safran, Sheryl Swanson, Frank Countess.

Ed Lincoln makes a feeble attempt to kidnap Prince Ivanha from a maternal Holly Whittaker.

Dan Escaro struts his stuff.

Sue Himmer plays "Simon Legree" to Julie Ulrich and Kathy Derrick.

OLIVER

Captures Audience's Hearts.

The 1984 York Suburban spring musical production was OLIVER based on Charles Dickens' book Oliver Twist. The performance was presented on May 4 and 5.

The production was directed by Mrs. Myrna Schaszberger and choreographed by Mr. Paul Lajkowic. Chorus director, Mr. Lutz, and orchestra director, Mr. Theodore Good, arranged the music.

Andrew Allis played a spectacular Oliver, giving the show a welcoming friendly atmosphere. Twelve other middle school students participated as the Workhouse Boys/Fagin's Gang. Other students who performed were senior, Craig Walker as Mr. Bumble; junior, Melissa Shiley as Mrs. Corney; seniors, Steven Schlager and Pamela Herr as Mr. and Mrs. Sowerberry; junior, Jeff Mummert as Fagin; junior, Matt Hershey as Bill Sikes; and senior, Kathy Pandelidis as Nancy.

The combined cast gave a spectacular heartwarming show which was enjoyed by the audience of all ages.

TALENT SHOW

Audience "Jumps."

This year's talent show featured a variety of musical entertainment. The show was opened by the Stage Band's versions of "Another Shade of Blue" and "A Song for My Children." Also featured were solo versions of Lionel Richie's "Hello" and the song "New York, New York," as well as piano-accompanied versions of Tracey Ullman's "They Don't Know" and the song "Memories" from the musical "Cats." Dan Escaro's band did a high-powered version of Van Halen's "Jump" while Rude Awakening did Van Halen's "You Really Got Me," and Craig Graham's band did an original number. Peggy Fordney and Kathy Pandelidis did a rendition of Bob Dylan's "The Times they are a changin'." Gretchen Cardoso, Bonnie Clayton, Pam Horner and Laurie Ballay dance to Loverboy's "Hot Girls in Love." The only non-musical number was a rendition of Monty Python's "Argument Clinic."

DRAMA CLUB PLAY

Fits Well on Suburban's Stage.

The Drama Club Play, Not Fit to Print, made its debut October 26, 1984. This comedy centered around the Metro Inquirer, a trashy periodical known for its famous headline, "Man Eats Own Face." Holly Whittaker portrayed Ida Perry, an honest journalism student who obtained a job at the infamous newspaper. Holly's leading man Jim Nusbaum portrayed Noah Nicholson, ace reporter for the Metro Inquirer. For all who attended, Not Fit to Print was a comical success, and Andy Allis was especially enjoyed as the "terminal doink" Doyle Witherspoon.

SENIORS PERFORM ANGELICALLY

This year the Senior Class presented Thoms Wolfe's dramatic comedy Look Homeward, Angel. The story focuses on Miss Eliza Gant, played by Missy Stump, a southern boarding house proprietress trying desperately to hold her family together. The new boarder, Laura James, Becky Abraham, leads her son Eugene, Matt Hershey, astray, complicating the easy-going life of the boarding house. Mrs. Schazberger selected this particular play because she had people that she felt could handle a challenging play such as this. It is also one of her favorite plays. To the satisfaction of Mrs. Schazberger and the student director, Lynn Joslin, the play was a big success.

Exchange Student Bids Farewell

I had a wonderful year at Suburban. It's very interesting to spend a whole year in a foreign country. There are so many differences, especially between schools. What I liked in an American school was that I didn't have to go to school on Saturdays, and what I didn't like was that school starts early and that I had to move to classes with big and heavy books.

I also enjoyed being in the band and playing volleyball.

I wish I could stay here for the graduation. Thank you for making this year one of the greatest experiences of my life.

The Student Council of the 1984-85 school year with its new advisors, Mr. Dick Guyer and Mrs. Alice Brader, tried many new ideas. A masquerade dance, Sadie Hawkins Court, additions to the activities of Spirit Week, and victory dances after the basketball games are just a few of their successes. They also held pep rallies for a variety of sporting events. This year's student council really boosted York Suburban's school spirit.

BASEBALL

The 1984 Trojan Baseball Team finished its season with a 13-9 record overall. Within the league, the team won 11 and lost 4, tying for first in the standings. The season showcased several outstanding individual efforts. Ben Murphy and Jason Herrold were named to the York Dispatch All-Star Team. In addition, Terry Golden tied the record for triples (6), and Jason set a new record for bases on balls (24). Ben and Jason also tied the existing record for home runs (5). With the return of such outstanding players, the 1985 Trojan nine could improve an already fine performance.

TRACK TEAMS

Boys and Girls Combine Efforts for Success.

The track team's record does not do justice to the talented and dedicated athletes on the teams. Although the team did not finish the season with an exceptional team record, there were many outstanding individual performances. Seniors and underclassmen together provided much talent. On the boys' distance team were record-setters Craig Johnson, Keith Almoney, and Tim Ebbert. Junior Scott Hoffman proved to be a standout in the long jump and triple jump, while the sprinters boasted a team featuring Andy Bowman and Steve Slonaker. Steve Slonaker also excelled in the pole vault and entered the state meet.

The girls had an equal amount of talent. Jumpers Lori Snyder, Kate Morrison, and Karen Boden scored numerous points, while Tiffani Sprenkle had a very successful throwing season. Sprinters Sue Hall and D'Este Hanson, and hurdler Beth Adams also made a great contribution. The track team is now looking toward the '85 season with optimism.

BOYS' TENNIS

Netters Top Courts.

The tennis team had a very successful year with a final record of 8 wins and 2 losses. The York Suburban Netters were led by Bob Lyons, playing number one. Other top starters were Seniors Dave McEwan, Dave Kranich, Doug Desrochers, and freshman, Bill Swartz. These able players led the team to a 3rd place division standing. Bob Lyons felt that, "It was a good year all the way around."

GLITZ LEADS TROJANS TO VICTORY

Led by state champion Laura Glitz, the girls' tennis team blitzed the rest of the county to post a perfect 10-0 championship season. Most of the teams offered little competition, which resulted in several routs. The most exciting match was the Central match, which was postponed due to a lightning storm with the score 2-1 in the Trojans' favor. Two weeks later, the match concluded with the Trojans coming out on top, 4-3. With one match remaining and at least a tie for the title in their pocket, the netters traveled to defending champion Spring Grove and soundly defeated them 6-1. Other team starters were: Shelley Azar, Sharlene Bhyun, Natalie Azar, Lori Snyder, and substitute Amy Massey.

For the third consecutive year, Laura Glitz won the YCIAA and District 3 singles titles. In addition, she and Sharlene Bhyun captured second place in county doubles. Finally, Laura achieved her ultimate dream — a Pennsylvania state championship.

FOOTBALL

Team Sparks Spirit

The 1984 Trojans ended the season with a respectable 5-3-1 record. The team rallied to exciting victories over Dover, York High, Red Lion, West York and York Catholic. Coach McCoy stated, "I think the team played their best and gave everything they had to give. They played hard and gave 100% in all the games."

This year's team had many outstanding players who all contributed to a successful season. Six seniors, Mark Shaffer, Steve Ruth, Ollie Kohr, Joe Dashler, Andy Bowman, and Keith Lightner were chosen for the County All-Star Team. Ollie Kohr, who was additionally picked as defensive player of the year by the York Daily Record, commented, "It was a positive experience for me; we hit hard all year long."

As a prediction for next year's team, returning letterman, Lou Didio stated, "We're losing most of the offensive line, but if we work hard, we'll do well."

CROSS COUNTRY TEAM FLOATS TO VICTORY

The 1984 Trojan Cross Country Team finished its regular season with a record of 10 wins and 1 loss. The lone loss came against Dallastown in an exhibition match. The team turned in outstanding performances at all meets, winning the Hereford Invitational. As District runners-up, they continued on the state meet, where they captured fifth place. Outstanding individual efforts were turned in by Julie Young, who set a new York Suburban course record for girls. The leading runners for the boys team were seniors Tim Ebbert, Keith Almoney, and junior Mike Beshore.

SENIORS DOMINATE TEAM'S SUCCESS

This year's team showed much improvement over last year, according to Frank Countess and finished with a record of 8-8-2. The team was led by high scorer Gregg Doshna, who scored 18 goals and was a member of the All-Star Team to which Scott Lussier and Frank Countess were nominated. Coach Lau and assistant coach Darrel Bouling guided the team to its best record ever. Much of this year's success can be attributed to seniors Gregg Doshna, Frank Countess, Steve Heinrich, and Ed Lincoln, who provided a strong core for the team to grow around. The whole team was saddened when Eric Bowman made an heroic attempt to get the ball and broke his leg, and accident which, according to some team members, prevented them from winning the championship.

FIELD HOCKEY

Team Spirits Are High

This year's field hockey team, led by Coach Platt and Assistant Coach Duncan, had a season record of 2-10. Senior Mindy Steward led the team with her experience and ability. Co-Managers Lisa Hale, Jane Metzler and Kelli Miller and Co-Captains Kirsten Matthews, Wendy Haiges and Mindy Steward helped form the team spirit. Briana Smith, a junior, stated it was a "good feeling to be a part of a team." At the annual Field Hockey Banquet Mindy Steward won the prestigious "MVP" award and Jill Platts won the second highest number of goals award.

GOLF

Team Putts With Purpose

This year's golf team was led by seniors, Cary Walton, John Rogus and Kip Cosgrove. Although the team's record was 2-10, John Rogus' gorilla drives served to spark the team's spirit. Cary Walton and John Brammer led the team with outstanding performances. Their greatest challenge, York High, once again proved to be a formidable opponent and the team looks forward to that challenge again next season.

HASENFUSS'S HOOPERS Hang Tough

The Trojans finished the 1985 season with an 18-4 overall record and a 12-2 league record losing only to York High, Red Lion, and York Catholic.

The team began its successful season by placing second in its own tip-off tournament and captured the Columbia Tournament over Christmas vacation.

Leading the Trojans to victory were seniors Mike Donahue, Tim Waisner, Jason Herrold, Kip Cosgrove and Juniors Brian Towns, Ben Murphy, and Kirk May. Other members who came off the bench in relief were Ed Vercheck, Joe Dashler, Butch Miller and Tim Ebbert.

On the basis of their record, they went to both District 3 and State playoffs.

Mike Donahue had a spectacular season, breaking both the 1000 point barrier and the all-time school mark on his way to becoming the county's 3rd leading scorer.

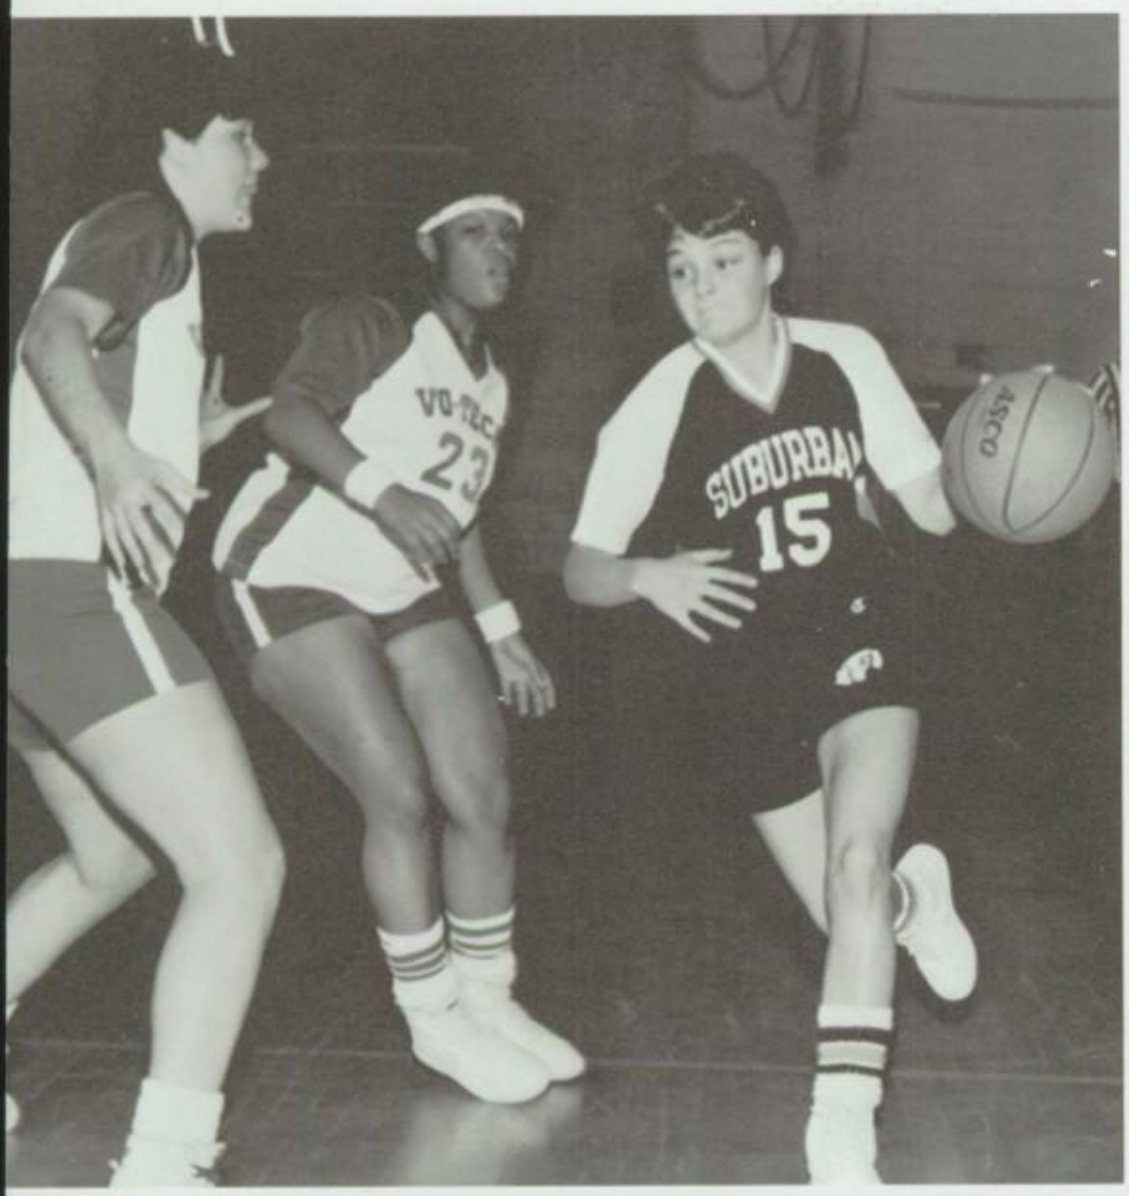
GIRLS FINISH A STRONG SECOND



The 1984-85 girls' varsity basketball team, managed by Cara Curtis and Chris Grammes, ended its season with an outstanding record. This year's varsity starters: seniors, Mindy Steward and Tobi Snell; juniors, Lori Snyder, Sue Hall, and Jill Platts; and freshman, Mary Strausbaugh, combined their talent and put forth maximum effort to carry the team to a 13 win and 2 loss record. Unfortunately, the Trojanettes lost the Eastern Division playoffs to York Catholic putting Coach Miller's girls in second place overall.

The winning spirit of both varsity and J.V. is clearly expressed in the words of J.V. starter Angie Heinrich, "We had a really great season and when the times got rough, we worked even harder." The Trojanettes' next season looks even more promising with four returning starters and several talented advancing J.V. players.

WRESTLERS KEEP THE FAITH.

This year, under new coach Mr. Kuntz, the varsity wrestling team finished the season without a win. But the team members are not discouraged. Some of the losses were by small margins, such as two points to York Catholic. Team members feel that the record can be attributed to the number of inexperienced wrestlers on the team, and to the fact that they had to adjust to a new coach. Seven wrestlers pinned their opponents this season, and next year the total should be higher. The team loses only three members through graduation, so next year's season should be brighter.

GUPPIES SWIM TO 100th VICTORY

This year the guppy swimmers continued the winning tradition under the enthusiastic leadership of Coach Richard Guyer. The highlight of the season was passing the hundredth consecutive win in the YCIAA league. Both the boys' and girls' teams finished another season with a 12-0 league record. The long hours of training paid off perfectly with a victory over their toughest competitor, Dover High School.

The co-captains who provided motivating leadership were Holly Arigo, Peggy Hickman, Kara Kehm, and Lori Miller on the girls' team and Geoff Barnes, Mike Bray, Chris Danowski, and Dan Escaro on the boys' team. 18 Y.S. swimmers have qualified for the district meet and hope to compete at the state meet. Although the strength was mainly in the seniors this year, the underclassmen came through with the depth that was needed to win. The guppies concluded the season with a total of 104 consecutive victories.

At the end of the year, every student looks back and tries to remember everything that happened. Sometimes memory fails, and you have to open your yearbook to help you. There are a few people who deserve recognition for their efforts in the production of this yearbook.

I'd like to thank all of the staff members for their hard work and dedication. Our staff might be small as compared to other organizations, but everyone worked extremely hard and produced a super book.

I would also like to thank the seniors on the staff for being there the past three years and giving me their help and advice. Special thanks go to Tracey Reever, the business editor, for taking care of all the money and associated problems.

The staff photographers also deserve to be praised. They gave up their time to photograph school organizations and athletic events, and came up with some terrific photographs.

Saving the most important for last, I would like to extend my deepest appreciation to our advisor, Mrs. Carbaugh. She put up with all the problems, arguments, lost pictures, and missed deadlines. But she was always there. She kept the staff on course, and the final product can be attributed to her abilities. Thanks again for being a number one advisor.

This edition of the Profile holds many special memories for the staff members. We hope it holds just as many for all of you.
